

Representational democracy. lower case letters are voters, upper case letters are representatives, numbers are issues